

We deliver a happy life that brings smiles to everyone's faces
Delicious Gyoza from Japan to the World ASEAN Edition

In addition to selling the frozen gyoza that are popular in Japan in North America and Europe, the Ajinomoto Group launched frozen gyoza in ASEAN in 2004, and currently sells them in Thailand, Singapore, the Philippines and two other ASEAN countries. The Japanese-style gyoza, with its crispy skin and juicy filling, is spreading while adapting to the food cultures and tastes of the people of ASEAN and are being enjoyed in restaurants and in homes. Going forward, we will expand both the number of products we sell and the areas where they are sold and work to make more people fans.

In order to deliver these products safely to our customers, we are committed to quality and stable production, and take over work at home saves the customers' time and labor. Here we will introduce what some of these employees are doing and some comments from our customers today.

The Ajinomoto Group's Frozen Foods Business enriches the world's food culture by being No. 1 in deliciousness, fun, and healthy and nutritious, and delivering excitement and smiles directly to our customers.
